Life is so ironic, it takes sadness to know what happiness ,
noise to appreciate silence and absence to value presence.

First Friday: Friday next 1st Feb. Mass in Convent Chapel @ 7.00 p.m.
Call as usual on Thursday and Friday.

Friday is the feast of St. Brigid, patron of our land. At this time of Brexit anxiety, we seek her prayer and her intercession for the people of our country North and South and for our nearest neighbours in Britain, where so many of our people and our families have made their home and their livelihood .

On Saturday 2nd February, we celebrate the gift that is Religious Life. In our parish we are blessed to have the two communities, Sisters of Mercy and the Poor Clare Sisters. We thank God for that gift that sometimes we might take for granted. May St. Brigid , the first woman religious in Ireland continue to inspire and intercede for our Poor Clare Sisters and our Sisters of Mercy.

On Sunday 3rd February, the feast of St. Blaise the healer, we remember especially all those on the journey of recovery from illness at this time. We ask St. Blaise to guide the hearts, the hands and the minds of all in the medical and caring profession who every day work the miracle of healing.

Throats will be blessed at all Masses next weekend.

Prayer to St. Brigid.

Brigid, You were a woman of peace.
You brought harmony where there was conflict.
You brought light to the darkness.
You brought hope to the downcast.
May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts and in our world.
Inspire us to act justly and to reverence all God has made.

Brigid, you were a voice for the wounded and the weary.
Strengthen what is weak within us.
Calm us into a quietness that heals and listens.
May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind, body and spirit. Amen.
