Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel on Monday 16th July.

This Monday July 16th is the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. It is a week when we remember and give thanks for the Carmelite Communities all over the world. It is a time to give thanks to God for the great Carmelite Saints, Teresa of Avila, John of the Cross, Edith Stein, Elizabeth of the Trinity and Thérèse (Blaithín). Thérèse tells this beautiful story of childlike trust, joy and freedom in a “Papa God “ who writes her name in the stars:

“On my way home I would look up at the stars.
There was a cluster of golden pearls which gave me great joy because they were in the form of a “T”.
I pointed them out to Papa, I told him my name is written in Heaven.
Then I asked him to guide my steps,
not looking where I put my feet,
giving myself over completely to the star-studded firmament”
Only a child’s eyes could know such wonder and read her name, star-spangled in the heavens.”

Let nothing disturb you;
Let nothing frighten you.
All things are passing.
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things.
Nothing is wanting to him who possesses God.
God alone suffices.

“Perfection does not consist in performing extraordinary actions, but rather in performing extraordinarily well the ordinary actions for every day”

(Catherine McAuley)
