Something to Reflect on.

When Jesus recruits he doesn't give long speeches.

He found the tax office and said, "Follow me". That was all.

Not even a personnel form, three letters of recommendation, and place to put down "salary expected".

Matthew doesn't check about retirement benefits or ask if apostles get VHI.

Lord, You can't expect twentieth-century people to be so impulsive, to trust in—well, nothing but God.

If we follow You we might have to feed the hungry,
give away the suit in the closet,
and stop pretending that the prisoners and old people aren't there.

If we follow You we might have to give up grudges,
shake hands at the sign of peace,
break our cherished silences,
and even get along with our family.
Follow a Teacher of Love and there's no telling where one will end:
on the side of mercy in a cruel world.

Life has taught us that love does not consist in gazing at each other but in looking outward together in the same direction.

When we hurt each other we should write it down in sand,
so the winds of forgiveness can make it go away for good.

When we help each other we should chisel it in stone,
