World Communications Day (May 28th 2017)

I am convinced that we have to break the vicious circle of anxiety and stem the spiral of fear resulting from a constant focus on "bad news" (Wars, terrorism scandals and all sorts of human failure).

Today too the Spirit continues to sow in us a desire for the Kingdom, thanks to all those drawing inspiration from the Good News amid the dramatic events of our time, shine like beacons in the darkness of the world, shedding light along the way and opening ever new paths of confidence and hope. (Pope Francis)

Native American Prayer.

Oh, Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the wind, whose breath gives life to all the world. Hear me: I need your strength and wisdom.

Let me walk in beauty, and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.

Make my hands respect the things you have made and my ears sharp to hear your voice.

Help me to remain calm and strong in the face of all that comes towards me.

Let me learn the lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock.

I seek strength, not to be greater than my brother or sister, but to fight my greatest enemy—Myself.

Make me always ready to come to you with clean hands and straight eyes, so when life fades, as the fading sunset, my spirit may come to you without shame.
