January is a good time to de-clutter. Have you received gifts that you will not use or need. Would you like to “re-gift” them. CASA would be most grateful for any such items. My garage door is always open to help you de-clutter. Thank you on behalf of all the CASA family.

This Sunday is World Day of Migrants and Refugees. Imagine landing in Drumshanbo in the middle of Winter — knowing nobody. Imagine being forced to leave your home and your homeland — seeing it and your own people destroyed by war, persecution or famine and never able to return home. Imagine having little language to communicate.

Can you imagine?

What would be your fears, What would be your dreams / nightmares. What could be your dreams / hopes for the future.

This Sunday in our Prayer, we will try to imagine - the fear, the loss, the pain, but also the hopes and dreams of the new future
A bridge of hope !

Imagine we could help to build that bridge for them.

Celtic Rune of Hospitality

I saw a stranger yesterday,
I put food in the eating place, drink in the drinking place and music in the listening place.

And in the sacred name of the Triune
He blessed myself and my house, my cattle and my dear ones.

And the lark said in her song: often often often Goes the Christ in stranger's guise: often often often Goes the Christ in stranger's guise.
