This week the schools are off.

The exams are over.

The "Tóstal Bales" are out—

July is round the corner. It is the time of Summer holiday.

For all who travel these weeks, we pray a safe holiday for all.

May it be a time of rest, renewal, fun and games and family.

People will come to visit us.

May they find the true Leitrim welcome here in Drumshanbo especially in the Joe Mooney week.

In August families from all over the world will gather with us and Pope Francis.

Please pray that it will be a time of grace and blessing,

a time of hope and joy,

for all who come ,

for all our country,

for all our Church

and for all our family.
