Prayer Meeting on Monday @ 8pm in Aras Phádraig.

Baptism: We welcome in our Christian Community Oliver Robert Bohan O'Hagan who was baptised in our parish this weekend.

+ We continue as a Parish Family to remember the O'Brien family in their great sadness as we pray God to give a gentle rest of peace and light to Kelly forever.

Could I ask a special prayer this week as I go to lead a retreat for a group of Jesus Caritas priests. Thank you . Fr. Frankie.

Spirit of God
Breathe your Spirit into my soul
Still it, that hushed and quiet,
Gods voice may be heard. Amen.

Data Protection Legislation came into force recently.

Among the requirement : - Written consent to be obtained from of people whose names are published in the newsletter and whose names and details we have on file for example: - Ministers of the Eucharist, Ministers of the Word, Altar Society, Collectors, Pastoral Council, Finance Committee, Stewarts, Choir members and all volunteering in any other capacity. Consent forms will be in the Sacristy . It is an essential element of Data Protection compliance. I would be grateful if you could treat the completion of this form as a priority. You may complete the form in the Sacristy or take it with you and drop into the Parish office.

This week sees the arrival of another sister to the Poor Clare family in Drumshanbo. Sr. Michael has come to join Sr. Jemma and Sr. Paul from the Philippines. On behalf of our Parish Community I extend a warmest of Leitrim welcome to her "Céad Míle Fáilte".

I pray she will be happy here in her new home and I thank Sr. Marietta and Poor Clare Community in the Philippines, for sending us "three kings" from the East with the wonderful gifts of prayer, music and creativity to share with all of us, like the prayer of the "Bells of Drumshanbo"
