Mission Sunday.

On this Mission Sunday, we remember all from our parish and our country, who have left all to share the Gospel of Joy, the Gospel of Jesus, with those in faraway places. It is appropriate and providential that this week we celebrate with Sr. Jemma, her incorporation into our Poor Clare Family of Drumshanbo. We thank God for the generosity of the Poor Clare Family in the Philippines, for the gift of Sr. Jemma and now also Sr. Paul and Sr. Michael. We remember and thank God for their families. We thank God for our Missionaries who went to the Philippines, to share their faith and to receive more than they gave. Finally we thank God for the gift of Sr. Jemma, her creativity and her joy, her faith and her friendship, that is a gift of grace for all of us. God bless you Sr. Jemma. (Fr. Frankie).

Sr. Jemma writes.....As we celebrate Mission Sunday, I know it is very appropriate that I being a new Missionary, celebrates with you my incorporation into our Poor Clare Community. Here in Drumshanbo, indeed, God so loved you all, that he did not allow our Monastery to be closed. I am indeed, very grateful to Him for calling me to share in His Mission of love and mercy here in Ireland. I am here now because all of you never stop praying. I am the fruit of all your prayers and if we keep praying (together) as individuals, as a family and as a community, we will learn to love one another. For love is the best fruit of prayer and in loving one another we become Missionary to each other and to the whole church, sharing in the one Mission of God in the world. Thank you for praying with us. Thank you for praying for the Mission. May God bless you all. (Sr. Jemma)
