One of the saddest aspects of the present pandemic is the experience of bereavement a family must go through on their own. The ritual of wake and funeral happens without the usual support of neighbours, friends and family. This week we remember the Moran Family, Drumkeelanbeg, as they laid to rest Nancy during the past week. May her lovely smile light up the kitchen of heaven as it did her own. May she rest in peace. Amen.

Sunday is the feast of Corpus Christi. This year this is a very special day for the Poor Clare Sisters as they celebrate 150 years of perpetual Adoration. On Sunday morning with the Mercy and Poor Clare Sister we will walk the procession in the garden of the Convent in solidarity with all of you and with all their friends, benefactors and adorers over the past 150 years. From the garden we will bless you all. We will ask Saint Clare to take the Monstrance as she did in Assisi and to drive away the enemy of this pandemic from our homes, from our parish, from our country and from our world forever.

Feast of the Sacred Heart Friday 19th June

Novena Prayer :

Sacred Heart of Jesus:

The needs of your people open your heart in love for each of us.

You care for us when we are lost,
 Sympathize with us in loneliness,
 And comfort us in mourning.

You are closest to us where we are weakest.

You love us most when we love ourselves least.

You forgive us most when we forgive ourselves least,
 And you call us to spread your love in whatever way we can.

Sacred Heart of Jesus:

Your heart is moved with compassion when we are suffering. When we need your help,
 And when we pray for each other.

I ask you to listen to my prayer during this Novena And grant what I ask (mention request)

If what I ask is not for my own good and the good of others.

Grant me what is best,
 That I may build up your kingdom of love in our world .
 Amen.

This week we pray the Sacred Heart Novena. You all know my affection for Our Sacred Heart window in our Church. As children when we prayed the Rosary, those eyes followed us as we knelt, our heads pressed against the rungs of the back of the chair near the kitchen fire. The red lamp never went out. It welcomed us home in the dark nights.

We trust now more than ever that the gaze of those loving eyes will never leave us. The lamp that is His heart of compassion burns brightly in love for each of us down all the years and miles and travels away from and back home again. That hand of His outstretched friendship captured in our window will never be withdrawn.
