Recently deceased: We remember in our prayers Kathleen Reynolds, Carrick Road, and Eileen Connolly, (nee Woods) Leitrim Village. May the gentle hand of God welcome them home and keep them safe forever. Amen.

Wedding: Congratulations to Donal Logan & Niamh Lavin, who were married in Arigna this weekend. May they both enjoy a long life together.

Change in Mass times:

Mass on Saturday evenings will change to 7p.m. from Saturday 3rd October.

The Pastoral Council would appeal to people attending Mass to avoid parking in the Church Yard unless they or their passengers are seniors or have mobility issues

Message from Archbishop Eamon Martin: I am calling for a “Family Rosary Crusade against Covid” during October – encouraging you to pray the Rosary, or even a decade of the Rosary, each day during the month of October. Pray for your own family and loved ones and for all those whose health or livelihood is being seriously impacted by the coronavirus crisis.

Sunday next October 4th is the Feast of Francis of Assisi. It is a special Feast Day for our Poor Clare Sisters and also for all of us. On Thursday last 24th September we celebrated the Feast of Our Lady of Mercy. We give thanks for the Sisters of Mercy and their presence of prayer, hospitality and service in our Parish the last 30 years. Our Bishop Francis Duffy will celebrate Mass at 11.30 a.m. on Sunday next. At that Mass he will bless our newly renovated Church which is celebrating 175 years of the lives, prayer and faith of our people. It is a very special day for our Parish. I very much regret that due to the present restrictions we are not able to have everybody who wishes to be present in our Church on Sunday next. I would love have a full Church, servers and choirs and all our people to celebrate this historic day. I hope and pray that one day in the not too distant future this will be possible. In the meantime we welcome all of you to join with us via our Parish Webcam and pray with us on Sunday next.

A souvenir booklet has been prepared for this special occasion, with copies available from next weekend.

“St. Patrick’s Church

Celebrating 175 years of life in our Church”

As part of the celebration of this special weekend 27 boys and girls who are now in 3rd class will receive their First Holy Communion on Saturday next in two ceremonies at 12 noon and 2 p.m. with two adults for each child.

Thursday next 1st October is the Feast of St. Therese and Friday 2nd is the Feast of the Guardian Angels. May the Prayer of Innocence that is the prayer of our First Communion Children, mingle with the prayer of Thérèse and the Angels who guard them to mind, bless and protect all of our children and all of us in these stressful and uncertain times. (Fr. Frankie)
