This is "Catholic Schools Week" This week, we remember and give thanks for you our parents, without whom we would have no school. We thank God for all our precious children, God's greatest gift to us and this Catholic Schools Week, I pray that all the children in our school, Catholic, or any other denomination or none will always know that they are safe, minded and precious in the eyes of God and in the eyes of all our School Staff.

I thank God for Ruth and her school team for their dedication, passion for learning and compassion for each child's needs and welfare. We are truly blessed in our Catholic School and I hope we will never take it for granted.

A word of thanks to Martin and our Management Board who give of their time generously and always with the welfare of the children at the top of every agenda.

Thank you to our Parents Association for all your support to our school for many years.

Drumshanbo Vocational School is not a "Catholic School" as such, but we do not forget the work, care and prayer of all our Vocational School Staff, for all our teenagers and young adolescents, often at a difficult transition time in their lives.

We owe you all such a debt of gratitude for all you do every day, of every week.

A Teachers Blessing.

You are blessed.

You hold the children, in the palm of your hands.

You form the minds, you inspire the hearts, you shape the hopes of the children of the future of the Kingdom of God.

They bless you in return, with promise fulfilled, with hope realised, with lives well lived. Amen.
