Pentecost Sunday: Is a day to dance and to sing our celebration. The Spirit has come to reside, to hide in the human heart, the last place we think to look for our playful "hide and seek God", Come, Holy Spirit—You are as welcome as the flowers of May.

Today, we receive the joyful mystery of God's energy, laughter and love, brimfully spilling over in the gift of tongues and in the gift of tears. It is God's Spirit of peace beyond all understanding, emanating as forgiveness from the wounded hands and side of the Risen Lord. "Peace be with you" Jesus says and yet again, "Peace be with you". The Spirit of Pentecost day is the hearth's blazing fire for drawing, inviting, gathering us into the circle of the family. It is the burning flame of love to melt cold hearts, burn away the dross of greed and to fire the imagination.

"And after the fire came the sound of the gentle breeze". Pentecost is the Spirit of the Wind, playfully elusive and set free like the children at break-time in the playground, full of energy, excitement and laughter. The gentle breeze of God's mystery and unseen presence caresses tired eyelids, weaves playful patterns on the face of the waters and invites the summer-green branches and the whitethorn to move, dance and sway in perfect rhythm to its silent music. Pentecost Week we congratulate 6th Class who will celebrate Confirmation on Friday next 2nd June
