Recently Deceased: We remember in our prayer this week Noel Mulvey , brother of Bridie Gray and Tommy Mulvey who passed away during the week and Patsy Cullen, Drumkeelanmore, who's funeral Mass will be celebrated here on Monday at 11 a.m. May they live now in the Eternal Springtime of Heaven forever.

Prayer Meeting. Resumes Monday nights @ 8 p.m. in Parish Church. Everyone welcome to join.

The theme of this week of prayer is: "We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship Him" It is a call to unity, of those from the North and South, from the East and West, young and old, men and women.

Last Sunday Francis Duffy was installed as new Archbishop of Tuam. As he takes on this new role we continue to remember him in our prayer , to bless Francis and to guide and strengthen him for all that lies ahead for him.

Our Diocese for the present will have an Administrator who will take on the role as our Diocesan leader until when or if a new Bishop will be named. Fr. Tom Healy P.P. Edgeworthstown will take on that role and responsibility for the time being. Leadership is always a burden and a responsibility as well as a privilege . We ask Gods Holy Spirit to continue to guide Fr. Tom with his unique gifts of respect, courtesy and wisdom. Tom is a good friend.

The whole country has been wounded deeply by the tragic and horrific death of the young teacher Aisling Murphy this past week. There are some things so awful that the mind cannot comprehend them and the heart cannot bear. Our thoughts are with Aisling's family, her friends, her community and especially with her First Class children. It has made me reflect on that unique relationship all teachers have with their pupils. It is such a sacred bond of trust. It's a time once again to honour the role all our school staff play in our Community and with all of our children entrusted each day to their care and their love. We are forever grateful. We continue to remember in the prayer of this week the Murphy family and their beautiful daughter Aisling. May she continue to make her beautiful music in Heaven. (Fr. Frankie)
