Can I be a Healer.

This is the prayer for "Unity Week", Christian unity. For me , one of the saddest experience is to see a family divided, friends who "fall out", or neighbours not speaking to each other, often for years. I too know the hurt in the past of "being blanked". In the modern world of social media, we cancel people . A "falling out" often begins in misunderstanding, is nurtured by hurt, festers in suspicion and ends in the exclusion of a family member, a neighbour or a former friend.

Sometimes there will be one person who stirs the pot of suspicion and division. Some even get a kick out of it. Always too , there is one who seeks to be the healer, to make allowances, to see the bigger picture, have a sense of perspective and a sense of humour: the one who is a mender of fences. Every form of division in a family, workplace, club or neighbourhood , affects the whole community. It is like a blockage to the beating heart of a parish, that is Jesus of the Holy Eucharist.

Can I be a healer, a mender of fences?. Can I be a person of forgiveness and making allowances?. Can I be the one who stretches out the hand across the broken fence of days, months or years, that awful broken fence of exclusion, silence and hurt?.

I will be the better for it.....

Sometimes a family have difficulty in finding a date for their anniversary Mass because the weekend Masses are already booked. From this year, on the last Sunday of each month there will be an option to share that Mass intention with other families. This is the practice in many parishes. First Anniversary and Month's Mind Masses are special times, so this Mass intention will not be shared. Thank you for your understanding. (Fr. Frankie)
