This week Feb 7th we celebrate the Feast of St. Mel, First Bishop of our Diocese At the moment the 41 parishes that make up our Diocesan family are preparing for our Diocesan Assembly, that will take place the weekend 14th and 15th May. The four delegates who represent our parish are Marian Rynn, Maryann Mulvey, Sean Kielty and Gerry Mulvey.

As we continue to remember Archbishop Francis in our prayer in his new role in the Archdiocese of Tuam. I ask you to remember a special prayer for Fr. Tom Healy, who for the moment has taken on the role of Diocesan Administrator.

The future is unknown and uncertain for all our parishes with an ever diminishing number of priests. Difficult decisions will have to be made. There will not be a priest for every Parish in the near future.

This will now be the "the time of the laity", women and men who can take on the responsibility in the administration, care and prayer of the Parish Community. The theme of the Assembly is "Shaping the Future with Hope" We look forward in our prayer with great hope for the future in our Parish, Diocese and our Church.

Jesus, we pray now as we prepare for our Diocesan Assembly for your spirit of courage, joy and hope.

Jesus, make our Diocesan Family of 41 parishes, a place of joy and laughter where all our children will be safe and free and feel at home.

Jesus, keep us united as a Diocesan Family of lay and religious, young and old, women and men with the Holy Spirit to guide us. Amen.

Friday 11th Feb : Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. World Day of Prayer for the Sick. It may still not be possible to visit those who are ill but perhaps this week you could text, phone or send a card to a neighbour, friend or family in hospital or nursing home or going through a time of illness. Maybe light a candle on Friday to symbolize that prayer : Our Lady of Lourdes pray for us. St. Bernadette pray for us.
