Feast of St. Clare :Thursday 11th August.

This coming week we celebrate with our Poor Clare Community their special friends Feast, St. Clare. The word "Clare" means bright—hence the words "Clarity" and "Clarify", words which help us to see more clearly, to distinguish the wheat from the chaff of life. We ask Clare of Assisi to help us to see better, to see more clearly, to "clarify" our vision so that we can distinguish the Face of God shining in the Face of Jesus, reflected in the faces of children and of innocence, in the faces of suffering and tears and in the faces of our friends and our family.

We have come to know the face of St. Clare's kindness and understanding in the smiling faces of our Poor Clare Family, Srs. Paul, Judith, Clare, Dominic, Angela and Jemma. They are the face of St. Clare for us, as they listen to our worries and pray daily our anxieties, always understanding our fears. Thank you

Clare was the friend of Francis. God only knows the influence she had on him as his friend. We thank God for our friends, the people who believe in us, accept us and see more in us than we see in ourselves and so help us to believe in ourselves.

St. Clare and St. Francis, people of peace, joy, friendship and freedom, share with us the prayer of your friendship, the freedom of your joy and the blessing of your peace always. (Fr. Frankie)
