This weekend is our Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock.

All our 41 parishes will gather to pray together on Sunday next. Our Parish of Drumshanbo will provide the Readers and one of our families will bring the gifts to the Altar during the Mass.

Ceremonies begin at 2.30 p.m. with the Anointing of those who need healing. I invite you to join us in Knock on Sunday if you are able or to join us on webcam.

Our prayer this year is for a new Bishop who will be a wise and kind Shepherd to lead us into the future. At Knock we will have a special prayer for all our young people who this week got their Leaving Cert results. May the gentle prayer of Our Lady of Knock, guide and protect them, and inspire them to do great things for others, with their young lives and their beautiful gifts.

This is the month of Creation. Our Lady of Knock and Ireland give us, as a nation, a profound respect, reverence and care for our beautiful world, our common home. Allow us to listen attentively so as to hear the Cry of the Earth that is also the Cry of the Poor. Keep us grateful, humble and gracious.

“Moses takes off his sandals,
Not because the ground has suddenly become holy but because he’s just now becoming aware that the ground has been holy the whole time”

(Rob Bell)
