October :Month of the Missions : This year’s theme is “You will Be My Witnesses” Every Christian is called to be a missionary and witness to Christ. The Church, the community of Christ’s disciples, has no other mission than that of bringing the Gospel to the entire world by bearing witness to Christ. Each baptised person is called to mission, in the Church and by the mandate of the Church.

This past week has been the “Week of Creeslough”. We have all been part of the prayer and the pain of this last week as the parish gathered in St. Michael’s Church to lay to rest family members, neighbours and friends. They have all become our neighbours this past week. Jessica, James, Catherine and her son James, Robert and his daughter Shauna, Leona, Martin , Martina and Hugh are no longer just names but people we now know with all their unique goodness and amazing gifts. Our own parish grieves especially with Hugh Gallagher and his family who’s uncle Hugh was laid to rest on Friday.

A few things have struck me this past week; the grace and heroic dignity of that community personified by their priest Fr. John Joe; The Church of St. Michael’s has become a focal point of the community to share this sorrow and carry that cross of pain for each other. This to me is our Church at it’s best, a place of healing, compassion and comfort.

The words of 12 year old Hamish, speaking about his father James have stayed with me these past days.

“We should be grateful for our family, cherish them.

Be grateful because they won’t be there forever.

So use up the time we have wisely.

Also be grateful for your life, for that too won’t last forever.

But be grateful for you will be able to rest after your hard work”.

And that is my prayer that they can all rest after their hard work. (Fr. Frankie)

Remembering Creeslough:
