A Prayer in Time of Loss.

Today @ 5.00 p.m. we have our Remembrance Ceremony for all who have died in the past year.

We remember them especially in the Prayer leading up to Christmas.

We can shed tears that they are gone or we can smile because they have lived.

We can close our eyes and pray that they will come back or we can open our eyes and see that they have left.

Our hearts can be empty because we can't see them, or we can be full of love we shared go on.

We can turn our backs on tomorrow and live yesterday, or we can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

We can remember them only that they are gone, or we can cherish their memory and let it live on..

We can cry and close our minds or we can do what they would want,

Smile, open our eyes, love and go on.

We must never forget the importance of gratitude.

Say "thank you" when your heart is full and when it breaks and when you are alone and sad

and when you dance with joy and when things are lost and found again.

Day and night Give thanks For this incredible beautiful, tragic gift called life.
