Theme: "The Urgent Call for Prayer and Reparation:

Irish Cancer Society Daffodil Day — 24th March.

Friday is the Feast of St. Patrick, the patron of our people. Our prayer this weeks remembers our scattered family all over the world. Family members, neighbours and friends, aid workers, peace keepers and missionaries who make a difference wherever they go. We welcome the "New Irish " who have come to live among us: their gift and their faith enriches us.

These past weeks, once again have opened our eyes to the horror and anguish of the past for single mothers and their babies. There is so much to cause us pain and shame and make us seek forgiveness and healing for the sins, hurts and mistakes of the past.
We ask St. Patrick to pray that all our people and all our children will be cherished and protected from the moment of conception.
