Reflection.

I am created to do something or to be something for which no one else is created.

I have a place in God's counsels, in God's world which no one else has.

Whether I be rich or poor, despised or esteemed by man,

God knows me and calls me by name.

God has created me to do him some definite service.

God has committed some work to me that God has not committed to another.

I have my mission—I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next.

Somehow I am necessary for Gods purposes.....

Therefore I will trust.....Whatever, wherever I am, I can never be thrown away.

If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve,

.If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve,

My sickness or perplexity, or sorrow may be a necessary cause of some great end which is quite beyond me. God does nothing in vain.

God may prolong my life....God may shorten it; God knows.....

God may take my friends, God may throw me among strangers.

God may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide the future from me.....

Still God knows what He is about

I ask not to see — I ask not to know — I ask simply to be used.

(John H. Newman)
