Joe Mooney Summer School 2016

A Word of Welcome.

Its that time of year when once again we welcome all our visitors from far and near to the Joe Mooney Summer School.

This is the 28th year of the Summer School and it has become one of the most important events in the spread and development of traditional music, song and dance.

Thanks to the work of the organising committee, the many volunteers and the support of the whole community the school continues to go from strength to strength.

For some of the participants it is their first visit to Drumshanbo and we hope they have a pleasant visit and will take away fond memories of their time here. Many others have been coming here year after year, lured not only by their love of music, but also by the natural beauty of the area and by the friendliness of the people.

Tá súil again go mbeidh seachtain lán d'aoibhneas is d'athas ag cách.
Guímís rath Dé ar imeachtaí na seachtaine.

Martha and Mary welcomed Jesus into their home.
This is made known in the old Irish runic verse.

I saw a stranger yesterday
I put food for him in the eating—place,
drink for him in the drinking place and music for him in the listening place,
and he blessed me and my people
And later I heard the lark singing
“tis often, often, often, that Christ comes in the guise of a stranger”
