Monday next 15th August.: Holy Day of Obligation

The Year of Mercy.

We are invited by Pope Francis to live a merciful life:

- 1) Dare to really care. Allow ourselves to see people with the eyes of Jesus To see beneath the surface.....to recognise another persons loneliness, fear and hurt
- 2) Don't judge: Merciful people don't say "you got what you deserved"
Let God be the judge.... We are called to offer Mercy.
- 3) Avoid gossip: Merciful people refrain from gossip. Gossip is another assault on an already injured person.
- 4) Refuse to retaliate: Merciful people don't retaliate , hold a grudge or try to even the score.
They let go to God , and allow the bitterness to drain out of their hearts.
- 5) Cultivate little kindnesses: Small chances arises for kindness every day.
Allowing another out in traffic, holding a door open, a smile, a thank you, a greeting by name can change a persons outlook for the better.
- 6) Pray for Mercy: Pray to become more merciful.
Pray for the people who have hurt you.
Pray for those suffering from great hurts and pray especially for those who caused the hurt.

Notice:

You may have noticed the new CCTV cameras around the Church this week. These CCTV cameras in the Church and the Car Park will hopefully give greater security to those who come to pray in our Church and the cars parked during Mass times.
