This Sunday we welcome James Shevlin to speak at our 11.30a.m. Mass. James is a native of Glinsk in Co. Galway and is president of the Pioneer Association. He will speak to our young people who are preparing for confirmation this year. They will take the pledge at this Mass not to take alcohol or other addictive substances until they are eighteen.

This is a very big and a very brave decision on their part. They will face many temptations, even from their friends along the way. This Sunday we pray for them .

We ask God's Holy Spirit to give them the strength and courage, the wisdom and the support that they need to keep faithful to the pledge they are making today . AMEN

Thanks to James for coming to be with us and supporting these young people today.

This week Fr. Frankie will finish Creenagh and Creagh area.
