Part of the tradition of a Holy Year is the Holy Door, it is a symbol of welcome Up until now the Holy Door was confined to Rome but this year Holy Doors of Mercy are opened in cathedrals and churches all over the world.

In this Holy Year our diocese will have two Holy Doors of Mercy:
one at St. Mel's Cathedral, and another at St. Mary's Church, Athlone.
I invite individuals, families, class groups, and parishes to make a pilgrimage, a special journey, to one of our Holy Doors.

Our pilgrimage to a Holy Door is a sign of our willingness to allow God's merciful love flow into and through our lives.

Pope Francis has announced an indulgence associated with the Holy Year of Mercy.
Because God loves us he indulges us, he listens to us and gives us great reassurance of his mercy.
Those who wish to gain an indulgence may do so by making a pilgrimage to the Holy Door at St. Mel's Cathedral or St. Mary's Church, Athlone : receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation and The Holy Eucharist and praying for the intentions of the Holy Father. (Bishop Francis).

We welcome Fr. Conall O'Connell, Columban Fathers, who will speak to us today about their Missionary work.
