1916

*God, Most Merciful and kind, this Easter season of new beginnings
we remember the men, the women and the children of 1916 whose short lives and big dreams extended the horizons of our hopes.
In your mercy the faithful departed find rest.
Look kindly we pray, on all who lost their lives during 1916 and throughout the troubled journey of our island's history.*

*As we reflect on our past
we thank you for all the courageous people of Ireland
who dared to hope and dream of a brighter tomorrow
for our country and all of its citizens.
Blessed are all those who sought to build a more inclusive and just society,
for they are truly the chosen of God.*

*Together, on this island, we have achieved a new peace.
We cherish that peace, as we cherish all of the children of this island equally.
We pray for all those who have suffered in the troubles of the past century, and we hope for peace and reconciliation in the century that stretches before us.*

Do gach duine atá bailithe I ngach áit in Éireann, go raibh sonas, slainte agus síochain linn.

Moladh go deo le Dia Praise God forever..
